Daily Chats With the Housewife

SWEATERS FOR CHILDREN.
The little girl, just starting back to school, will feel newly dressed for a new school year if she is equipped with a dainty sweater. Fiber silk middie sweaters are now made for the youngsters in soft colors—just the thing to wear over little wash dresses. While a heavy silk sweater would not be appropriate for a child, these middie sweaters of fiber silk are inexpensive and simple.

FAMILY SEED CAKE (MADE FROM DOUGH.)
Take a quarter of dough left from making bread. Set it in a basin, cover with a cloth, before the fire to rise. Beat 1-2 pound of butter or dripping to cream; work this into the dough and add 3-4 pound of moist sugar, 1 ounce of caraway seeds and a well-beaten egg. Knead the dough well, put it into one large or two moderate-sized buttered baking tins; let it stand before the fire to rise, and bake in a well-heated oven about 2 hours for on cake.

OLD FASHIONED LOAF CAKE.
Three quarts sifted and well heated flour, a rounded pint of soft butter, 1 3-4 pounds (1 quart) sugar, 5 gills new milk, 1-2 pint yeast, 3 eggs, 2 pounds raisins (seeded), teaspoon soda, gill of brandy or wine or 1-4 pint of molasses, 2 teaspoons cinnamon and two of nutmeg. Scald 1 milk, cool to blood warm; add yeast, then the flour, to which all the butter and half the sugar have been added; then mix together and let rise until light. It is better to get this sponge over night and in the morning add the other ingredients (flouring raisins) and let them rise again. When light, fill baking pans and let rise again. Bake in a moderate oven. This recipe makes three large loaves and is a standard economical loaf cake.

HOW TO LAID OUTLETS.
Cut some strips of fat bacon of a size to fit into the large end of the larding needle; push the point of the needle into the meat (holding the other end firmly) about 1 1-2 inches deep, and bring out the point about 2 inches away, draw it through, leaving a piece of bacon at each end; take the next piece through about 1 inch apart, and so on. Trim the ends of the bacon evenly.

CUTLETS SAUTE (HOT).
Have ready a well-greased saute or frying pan, lay the cutlets in this taking care not to let them touch one another, pour a little stock over them, season with pepper and salt, cover with a buttered paper, place the pan on a clear fire, turn occasionally. They may be cooked in a buttered tin in the oven, but in this case they require more stock, and they should be covered with a buttered paper, and great care must be taken to prevent their being dried up.

NERVOUS WOMEN.
No one can help feeling nervous at times in this age of rush and racket, but every woman should remember that the more she controls this feeling the longer she will retain her beauty. It is quite possible to put on the brakes, as it were, and not let the nervous run away with us. If persons fret too, it is not necessary to be rude to them. Try instead to avoid them. Don't read books that irritate you. Books are plentiful, therefore put away the offending volume and choose another. If a noise at night worries you, don't let it continue to do so. Get up and see to the matter and put it right. Don't let yourself get into the habit of being bored. It is not worth while. When you feel it coming on plunge at once into some task that will take all your time and energy. It is better to run away from certain things than to let them irritate you.

OYSTER PIE.
Take one pound of cooked cod (flake it), two dozen oysters, one tablespoon of horseradish, three ounces of fat bacon, chopped fine, pepper and salt to taste. Put all into a pie dish.

Take one pint of milk, the yolks of four eggs, a little salt and pepper; make this into a custard; pour over the fish; then cover it with a nice puff paste; bake in a hot oven. Serve hot.

LAMB, TETRAZZINI STYLE.
Cook some spaghetti until tender. While cooking make a sauce of 1 pint of milk thickened with 2 tablespoons of flour and seasoned with salt, pepper and a lump of butter. Take a part of this and mix well with the spaghetti, which has been drained, and with the remainder mix with some small pieces of cook lamb about two inches long by one inch in width. Line a baking dish with the spaghetti, arrange the lamb and cream sauce in the center, cover with grated cheese, and bake until the cheese forms a brown crust. I usually add one green pepper chopped fine, or a couple of slices of the tinned pimentos. This is a particularly delicious way to use bits of chicken or turkey. One cup of spaghetti and 1-2 cup of lamb would serve three.
